

A SMALL NUDGE

is all it takes

"Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."" – John 4:10

HOW CAN WE
nudge
SOMEONE TODAY
TO TAKE A STEP CLOSER TO GOD?

And as catholysts, our job is to nudge them into noticing that God is already in their lives, so that they can take the small step towards Him and eventually fall into His arms. So the act of evangelisation is actually nudging others to pay attention to God's presence in their lives – simple, isn't it? All we need is to listen and discern the Holy Spirit's presence in an encounter which we may brush off.

The key is that we must be motivated by love. Only then will we be affirming others, encouraging them in their brokenness (he shared how God 'hangs out' with the broken) and eventually recognising the Holy Spirit's movement within our lives.

Words: Desmond Soon, 55, is a cradle Catholic who is serving in the Catholic Spirituality Centre as a member of St Jude's Music Ministry. He is also co-editor for OXYGEN (godismyoxygen.com), an online Catholic writing ministry.

Image: hearthymn.com

I've been called many things before but a 'nudger' was something new to me. Leonard Koh, Formation Manager at ONE, a dear friend who is a truly passionate speaker and spreader of God's word shares about how we, as Catholysts, can become 'nudgers' to help others sit up and take notice of God, who is already present in their lives, and to take another step closer to Him. Anchoring his sharing on Jesus' encounter with the Samaritan woman at the well. Leonard shares that Every person you meet today, is a potential divine appointment.